Lisbon, Auguſt 30.

THE King has already made ſome Alterations with regard to Commerce, by virtue of which the Duty upon Sugar has been greatly reduced; and 'tis expected that upon Tobacco will ſoon follow its Example.

Barcelona, Sept. 2. The two Ships of War which were equipped in this Port, put to Sea the 17th paſt, in order to join ſome Xebecks from Carthagena, and proceed together to cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary. Advices from Malaga ſay, that a Man of War was arrived there from Holland to take on board the ſix Sailors who ſome Time ago maſſacred the Captain and Part of the Crew of a Ship of that Nation.

Petersbourg, Sept. 4. M. Wahrendorff, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary, had a few Days ago an Audience of the Great Chancellor Count Beſtucheff, and delivered to him a Declaration from the King his Maſter, touching the Affairs of the North. 'Tis ſaid this Declaration is relative to one delivered ſome Time ago by M. Groſs, Miniſter from Berlin; and that Count Beſtucheff had promiſed to communicate its Contents to her Imperial Majeſty.

Naples, Sept. 4. The two Galliots appointed to cruize on the Coaſt of Calabria, in order to hinder any contraband Trade's being carried on there, put to Sea on Friday laſt. The ſame Day Advice was received at Court of a Fire's happening in the Royal Foreſt of Perſano, which had done an infinite deal of Damage; upon which Don Francis Maſtellone, Fiſcal of the Audience of Salerno, was ordered by the King to go thither, in order to find out if poſſible, whether the ſaid Fire really happened by Accident, or whether the ſaid Foreſt was maliciouſly ſet on Fire. A few Days ago a German Officer was ſtopt here, at the Requeſt of the Queen of Hungary, being accuſed of having killed a Lieutenant Colonel, with whom he had travelled, and with having carried off what Money and other Effects he had about him.

Rome, Sept. 5. The Differences between the Holy See and the Republick of Venice, ſeem now to be in a fair Way of being amicably adjuſted; for which Purpoſe a Perſon is ſoon expected here from thence, in order to pave the Way for M. Capello's taking upon himſelf again the Functions of Ambaſſador from that Republick; and M. Caraccioli, the Pope's Nuncio, is ordered to ſtop at Ferrara, till Affairs ſhall be ſettled for his returning again to Venice. M. Merlini, the Pope's Nuncio to the King of Sardinia, ſet out laſt Week on his Return to Turin. An Edict has been publiſhed here, by which all Dealers in Oyl and Olives in the Eccleſiaſtical State, are at Liberty to carry Samples of each to the Secretary of State's Office, and to leave with them Propoſals for furniſhing this City with the ſame for a certain Number of Years, the Pope being determined that the Inhabitants ſhall at all Times be ſupplied with them for the Future at a reaſonable Price. There having been a very plentiful Harveſt of Corn this Year throughout the Eccleſiaſtical State, the Pope has given Leave for the Exportation thereof. A few Days ago died, [illegible]an advanced Age, Count Vicentini, Governor of the Arms of Rietti, and is ſucceeded in that Employment by Baron Scarlatti.

Milan, Sept. 5. Some Days ago the Magiſtrates of this City, in a Body, waited on Count Harrach, Governor of the Milaneſe, to wiſh him a good Journey, and to expreſs their Regret at his Departure. They were received in a very affable Manner; and the Count aſſured them, that he ſhould, on all Occaſions, employ his good Offices at the Imperial Court, for obtaining all poſſible Advantages for this Country. 'Tis expected he will ſet out towards the End of this Month for Vienna.

Leghorn, Sept. 5. The Maſter of a Ship juſt arrived from Porto Ferrajo, brings Advice, that the Algerine Corſairs have lately taken three French Tartanes and one Dutch Ship. The ten Turkiſh Slaves, who arrived here from Toulon, are ſtill in the Lazaretto, no Anſwer having as yet come from the Court of Vienna, to the Demand

[Price Two-pence.]

Demand made by the French Conſul, for having thoſe Slaves delivered up to him.

Parma, Sept. 8. The Infanta, Conſort to the Duke our Sovereign, advances happily in her Pregnancy. On the 30th paſt the Regiment of Parma paſſed in Review before the Commiſſaries appointed to review the ſame; ſince which 'tis ſaid the Company of Grenadiers belonging to that Regiment, is going to be broke, and the Officers put on Half Pay. They talk likewiſe of a Reduction amongſt the Officers of the Court, and of reducing conſiderably the Appointments of the reſt.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11. The King has diſpoſed of the Regiment of Laland in Favour of M. Grambow; and M. de Windz, heretofore Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Jutland, has obtained the Regiment of Sleſwick. Count Lynar, his Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Ruſſia, is expected here from Petersbourg towards the End of next Month.

Vienna, Sept. 12. This Court having been informed, that the King of Portugal had named a Lord of his Court to come hither, to notify his Advancement to the Throne of that Kingdom; their Imperial Majeſties have appointed Count Stahrenberg to go to Lisbon to compliment his Portugueſe Majeſty on that Occaſion. His Imperial Majeſty is daily expected here from Bohemia. M. Schmetzdorff ſet out Yeſterday for Moravia, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the Poſt of Captain-General of the Circle of Iglau, ſituated in Moravia, which her Imperial Majeſty has lately conferred on him. A beautiful Firework and other Preparations are now making at Schonbrun, for celebrating the Feaſt of S^ta^ Thereſia, whoſe Name the Empreſs bears.

Breſlau, Sept. 12. The Troops which formed the Camp at Hudſelt, are all marched into their reſpective Quarters. Yeſterday his Pruſſian Majeſty ſet out from hence for Brieg, where he propoſes this Day to review the Regiment of Foot of Hautcharmois, which is there in Garriſon, and afterwards to go on for Neiſs.

Ratisbon, Sept. 14. The Prince of Tour Taxis, the Emperor's Principal Commiſſary to the Diet of the Empire, arrived here on the 12th Inſtant in the Evening from Bruſſels, under a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Ramparts; and laſt Night he was complimented by the reſpective Miniſters of the Diet.

Dreſden, Sept. 15. Count Flemming, his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of Great Britain, is returned to Havover, in order to take Leave of his Britannick Majeſty, and then to proceed for Vienna, where he is appointed to reſide as Envoy Extraordinary from this Court.

Berlin, Sept. 19. The King is expected at Potzdam from Sileſia on Monday next.

Bruſſels, Sept. 22. A Number of French Deſerters have arrived here within theſe few Days paſt, amongſt whom are no leſs than 20 of the Regiment of Horſe of Harcourt in Garriſon at Maubeuge. The Domeſticks of the Marqueſs de St. Conteſt, Ambaſſador from France to the States General, are almoſt continually paſſing through this City for the Hague, and his Excellency is hourly expected. The Dutch Regiment of Foot of Count de Rechteren, marched by this City laſt Week on its Way to Namur.

Hague, Sept. 25. It is expected that the Prince Stadtholder will be in Town the Beginning of next Week, in order to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, which are ſummoned to meet on Wedneſday the 30th Inſtant, N. S. M. Hop, the States General's Envoy at the Court of his Britannick Majeſty, is expected ſhortly from Hanover; as is likewiſe Count Bentinck.
